

RUSSIAN DANCERS WANTED!

The Kalinka dance group is looking for energetic and committed young people of all ages, including children, to join their troupe of dancers. You don't have to have prior experience with Russian dancing, just enthusiasm!

National genre, distinctiveness, temperament and Russian humour are all reflected in the concert programs of the "Kalinka" dance group. The repertoire of the group is not only limited to Russian dances. The Ukrainian "gopak", Gypsy, Belarusian dances and many others give the dancer an opportunity to familiarise themselves with the choreographic culture of ancient Slavonic and other nations.

The Kalinka dance group celebrates its 11th anniversary this year, and during this time has achieved popularity throughout the Russian and Australian public. For example, the group has performed with the Northern Rivers Symphony Orchestra at the Gold Coast Arts Centre, the Woodford festival and the Queensland Multi-cultural Festival at Roma Street Parklands.

The group is taught by Natalia Antoneko, a professional dancer with an advanced level of education in ballet, formerly a soloist of the State Dance Company of Belarus.
